Rules Clarification

Traveling: Not a violation on Metro.

NFTA-Metro's 2014 Transportation Guide

Metro drives you through the heart of Buffalo, serving hotels, restaurants and the First Niagara Center, with no dribbling required.

METRO RAIL SYSTEM

METRO RAIL SERVICE

Metro Rail will depart stations every 15 minutes and inbound trains will take you to the Special Events Station, steps from the First Niagara Center. Use Metro Rail to get back and forth from the arena to area restaurants and downtown hotels. See helpful visitor information on the back panel. Refer to the Metro Rail map on the adjoining panel for the various stop locations. Be sure to check Metro Rail and bus schedules online at nfta.com.

TAKE YOUR “PICK AND ROLL” WITH US

Metro Rail

Metro Rail is the best way to travel between First Niagara Center and almost all downtown hotels and restaurants. Trains run every 15 minutes throughout the day.

Free Park & Rides are available at the University at Buffalo's South Campus and LaSalle stations.

The ride to First Niagara Center from either of these locations is 20 to 25 minutes.

Metro Bus

Metro Bus serves downtown Buffalo, but can get you to destinations all over Western New York.

Metro's #204 Airport Downtown Express runs between the Buffalo Airport and Buffalo's central business district, Monday through Friday. One-way fare is $2.50 per person and exact change is required. Service runs every 30 minutes, during peak drive times. Remember, this is not offered on weekends.

Metro Fares

Fares apply to Metro Rail and bus service. Exact change is required on buses. Day passes can be purchased as you board a bus, or at rail stations.

Metro Rail is free above ground. Underground, rides require proof-of-payment.

One-way fare is $2.

Day Pass (unlimited rides on the day of purchase) - $5.

Metro Fare

Fares apply to Metro Bus and Rail. Exact change is required on buses. Day passes can be purchased as you board the bus or at rail stations.

Metro Rail is free above ground between Special Events Station (First Niagara Center) and Fountain Plaza Station. After the Fountain Plaza Station, the train runs underground and regular Metro fares apply. Proof-of-fare payment is required.

One Way Fare $2

Day Pass $5 (unlimited rides on the day of purchase)
